STAT

Thank you very much for your letter of April 5th and for the offer of your services. As things now stand we do not take on anybody in a more or less temporary status as yours would necessarily be. If, however, you do pick up any information of any sort around during your travels in Europe, the proper person to deliver such information to would be the Naval Attache in Paris, or in whatever other country you may visit.

Thank you again for your interest in this Agency and with best wishes, believe me,

Sincerely,

- Sup via air 4-15
